Transform your life by freeing yourself of all destructive emotions: anger, envy, worry, doubt, insecurities, low self esteem and fear. Free yourself of toxic emotions that make you ill physically and mentally, that stop you from doing the things you want to do, that rob you of your energy and peace of mind. You can learn to free yourself. You can learn to heal yourself and yes, you can be the Master of your life.

We will do all that through Primordial Sound Meditation, exercises to establish soul-mind-body connection, mind and soul power, and through special breathing and meditation techniques based on the ancient science of India, that will help you gain your emotional freedom. We will also go through energy, aura and chakra cleansing work. We begin on Friday and end on Sunday. All participants are required to stay at the Villa Unspunnen overnight.
